POWER Library Scavenger Hunt using Gale’s LitFinder E-Resource

LitFinder: Poet’s Corner

Directions Use the POWER Library e-resource called LitFinder to find answers to the following questions about these famous poets and their poems. Write your answer and the source for the information listed in the article in the spaces provided below.

1. Provide the title and the author of the poem that begins with “How do I love thee? Let me count the ways…” Why does it have a deceptive title?

   Answers:

2. What was the poem, “O Captain! My Captain!” by Walt Whitman, written about? Who is the Captain in the poem?

   Answers:

3. How many poems by Christopher Marlowe are in the Norton’s Anthology of Poetry? What are the titles? When were they written?

   Answers:

4. In the poem, “The Raven” by Edgar Allen Poe, what word does the raven continue to say? What significance does the bird and the term bring to the narrator?

   Answers:

5. What author wrote “The Road Not Taken”? When & where was he/she born? Was the author awarded any Pulitzer prizes? For what? How many?

   Answers: