Location Information

US Census Data
- ~652 square miles
- 44,638 residents
- 13.2% of adults 25+ possess at least a bachelor’s degree
- $21,300 per capita income

Terrain: Mountains, forests, mines, farmlands

Internet: Residents and employees don’t always have a trustworthy Internet connection, slowing connections for downloads and navigation. The technology gap exists as people have not had the money to explore newer technologies, thus creating an information literacy deficit.

Target Audience
Although this digital directory can be used by anyone, it has been especially designed for:
- Those who lack strong computer and information literacy skills
- People moving into the area
- People who may not step foot into the library

Digital Directory
With the Jefferson County, PA Regional Resources digital directory, users can visit the site to look up phone numbers, e-mail addresses, websites, and location information for the support they need most. In the environment which we have created, they can do so confidently as we have eliminated many of the usual roadblocks in the research process. As librarians, one of the most important aspects of this product is that we provide individuals a safe, reliable place to access the information they may need to make tomorrow a better day.